St. James's, October 7.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Diſſenting Miniſters of the Presbyterian Perſwaſion, and of many of the Gentlemen of their ſeveral Congregations, in the County of Dorſet, reſolved and agreed upon at their Half Yearly Aſſembly held at Bridport in the aforeſaid County, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Dodington, Eſq; Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Somerſet, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cheſterfield Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, in the moſt ſubmiſſive Manner, to condole with your Majeſty the unexpected and ſurprizing Demiſe of your Royal Father our late moſt gracious King and Governour: The Removal of a King of his Wiſdom, Juſtice, Vigilance, Steadineſs and Magnanimity, at ſo critical a Conjuncture, would have been an inſupportable Loſs, had not his Throne been immediately filled by the Heir of his Crown, and Inheritor of his Royal Endowments.

Suffer us therefore, Great Sir, to congratulate your Majeſty, our rightful and lawful King, upon your peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Realms. Our Joy and Satisfaction, on this Occaſion, exceed the Stretch of our Thoughts, and the Reach of our Expreſſions: At the ſame time be pleaſed to indulge us the Liberty to congratulate ourſelves and Fellow-Subjects, upon the pleaſing Proſpect of a long Continuance of our National Happineſs; for it muſt be our own Fault, if we are not the happieſt People in the World.

'Tis with an ineffable Pleaſure that we ſee a Prince of that Auguſt Family, which in former Story ſuffered through the fiery Zeal and Tyranny of Popery, now ſeated at the Upper End of the Proteſtant World; and by a diſtinguiſhing Providence made the Head of a rich, brave and powerful, becauſe a free People. 'Tis with no leſs Proportion of Joy and Satisfaction, that we ſee your Royal Conſort, our moſt gracious Queen, amply rewarded by Heaven for her firm Adherence to the glorious Cauſe of Truth.

Permit us, Dread Sovereign, to aſſure your Majeſty, that there is no Incongruity or Inconſiſtency in our Notions with Civil Government: Our Souls are fraught with a juſt Value for Liberty, and with all the Principles of Duty and Loyalty that can influence the Behaviour of the beſt of Subjects. When Schemes were framed, and Plans were drawn, for the Ruin of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and for the Introduction of Popery, the greateſt Miſery, we were then falſly repreſented as Enemies to the beſt Conſtitution in the World: But ſince thoſe bleſſed and glorious Æra's, the Revolution under King William, of immortal Memory, the Settlement of the Succeſſion in the illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick, and the Acceſſion of your great Predeceſſor to the Britiſh Throne, our greateſt Enemies dare not ſay, that one Aſſaſſin, Traytor, Rebel, or abjuring perjured Male-Content, has been found among thoſe of our Perſwaſion.

Our Maxims as Engliſhmen, Privileges as Subjects, Principles as Chriſtians and Proteſtants, oblige us with the higheſt Pleaſure to offer the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of an inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon, to the Succeſſion in your Auguſt Family, and of our Readineſs to ſacrifice our All in the Defence of your Majeſty's Government, and the juſt Prerogatives of the Crown.

Your Majeſty's conſummate Wiſdom, great Humanity, and paternal Regard for the Safety, Proſperity and Happineſs of all your People, conſtrain us to ſolace ourſelves with this agreeable Proſpect, that in your auſpicious Reign no Infringements will be made on the inherent Rights of Conſcience in Matters purely Religious.

May the Supreme Majeſty of both Worlds bleſs and proſper all your Majeſty's warm Inclinations and Royal Endeavours to defend the Proteſtant Cauſe, to reſtore and preſerve the Peace and Balance of Power in Europe, to ſecure and enlarge the Commerce of all your Dominions, and to promote the common Good of Mankind: May your Majeſty, after your precious and ineſtimable Life has reached the longeſt Period that Mortality permits, exchange your preſent Crown for one that will ſit eaſier, and ſhine infinitely brighter: May the ſame infinitely perfect Mind ſurround your Royal Conſort, your numerous numerous and hopeful Progeny, with his choiceſt Favours and Bleſſings: May the Entail of the Crown, together with its Foundation and Security, our Religion, Laws and Liberties, be perpetuated in your illuſtrious Family to the End of Time. Theſe are, and always ſhall be, the ſincere Wiſhes and Prayers of, May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, and moſt loyal Subjects.

The following humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Repreſentatives of New-England, having been tranſmitted to Francis Wilks, Eſq; has by him been preſented to His Majeſty, accompanied by ſeveral Eminent Merchants trading to thoſe Parts, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Deloraine Lord of the Bedchamber to His Majeſty in waiting. Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and they all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To His moſt Excellent Majeſty George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governour, Council and Repreſentatives of your Majeſty's Province of the Maſſachuſett's-Bay in New-England, in General Court aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, having a few Days paſt received the ſurprizing Intelligence of the ſudden Death of your Majeſty's Royal Father, our late moſt gracious Sovereign King George, of ever glorious Memory, were ſenſibly affected with the deepeſt Sorrow under that awful Stroke of the Divine Providence, and humbly crave Leave to condole with your Majeſty and the whole Britiſh Nation on that great and ſorrowful Occaſion; and at the ſame Time, we moſt heartily Congratulate your Majeſty's rightful and happy Acceſſion to the Throne, and our Hearts joyn in the univerſal Joy, and with all Duty and Humility would Approach your Royal Preſence, earneſtly beſeeching your ſacred Majeſty to accept theſe early and ſincere Expreſſions of our Loyalty, Submiſſion and Obedience to your Majeſty's rightful and lawful Sovereignty over us; unto which, we are ſtill more abundantly excited by your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, wherein your Majeſty has given all your Subjects ſuch Aſſurances of your tender Care for the Religion, Laws and Liberties of your People, that your good Subjects of this Province (though far diſtant from the Throne) aſſure themſelves they ſhall always rejoyce in the full and free Enjoyment of their Religions and Civil Rights and Priviledges, under the benign Influences of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign and Government, which God grant may be long and proſperous.

That Almighty God would afford your Majeſty the Aſſiſtance of all Divine Grace and Wiſdom, and at all Times incircle your Royal Conſort and illuſtrious Iſſue, with His Divine Favour and Protection; and that the Proteſtant Succeſſion may continue in, and the Britiſh Crown deſcend to your Royal Offſpring for ever, is, and ſhall be the hearty and fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt loyal, moſt faithful, and moſt obedient Subjects and Servants.

William Dummer.
